From start to finish- friendly, polite and efficient during booking, while dropping off, and of course picking back up. The whole process is so straightforward & stress free (which is a huge bonus when you already have so many other moving pieces that go along with planning an event). We have recommended this company to others in good faith that they will receive top notch service, and we will be repeat customers for sure. Thank you so much for everything!"

Another reviewer wrote, "I cannot speak highly enough of this company. I was so impressed by the customer service we received. I called numerous places to inquire about a tent, heater, tables, etc. for a party in my house. Dayna's was the one that was the easy choice because they were kind, knowledgeable, and assured me on the phone that this was going to be a smooth and stress-free process on my part. Phil came to our home and set everything up a few days in advance and took the time to explain everything. Everything went smoothly the night of our event, and we received compliments on the way everything was set up. We will definitely use them again. Thank you Dayna's Party Rentals!"
