December 04, 2015

December 04, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Jack Grady, owner of Stratford Suites, has proudly announced that they are now offering the short term apartment service along with extended stay hotel service for the travelers in Spokane, WA. Situated within minutes distance from the Spokane downtown and International Airport, the Stratford Suites are available as a convenient place to stay for travelers.

While making the announcement of their new offerings, Jack Grady said that the Stratford Suites are meant to provide the best environment possible for the business travelers and families. "I and my wife have been in the extended stay hotel business for 30 years and the Stratford Suites is our crowning achievement. It's our goal to go the extra mile to make your stay as comfortable as possible," Jack said.

Concerning the facilities that makes Stratford Suites facility a preferable place to stay for travelers, Jack said that the availability of services like a free airport shuttle, high-speed Wi-Fi, free laundry, smoking and non-smoking rooms, availability of one or two bedrooms, pet friendliness and much more provides a comfortable and homely feeling to the travelers while they stay at the Stratford Suites.

He further added that a prime location within minutes distance from Spokane Downtown and the Spokane International Airport makes it the place that people would feel prefer staying in. "Our slightly removed location allows people to be close to everything without being in the middle of it all the times," he said.

As a winner of an Excellence Certificate from Trip Advisor, the facility offers stays in different packages to cater to the needs of all the travelers, whether they are travelling alone or with family. Former guests have given them rave reviews for their accommodations, facilities and services. Now that they are in the Spokane, WA area, the company feels that they have taken a step forward to establish themselves as a go-to place for the travelers.
