San Francisco, CA - The Balanced Atlas, a leading chiropractic practice in San Francisco, is proud to announce its specialized Upper Cervical Chiropractic service designed to aid in recovering individuals who have experienced concussions. By addressing the crucial relationship between upper cervical misalignment and post-concussion symptoms, The Balanced Atlas offers a unique approach to healing and restoring the lives of patients suffering from the effects of head injuries.

Concussions, often resulting from traumatic head injuries, can have long-lasting consequences on an individual's physical and mental well-being. Dr. Allen Harrison, D.C., the highly skilled chiropractor at The Balanced Atlas, understands the interconnectedness of head and neck trauma. "Restoring upper cervical alignment is critical to the healing puzzle after a concussion," emphasizes Dr. Harrison. "Our Upper Cervical Chiropractic service plays an integral role in the comprehensive healthcare team dedicated to helping patients return to a normal life post-concussion."

The expertise and credentials of Dr. Allen Harrison demonstrate his unwavering commitment to improving the health and well-being of individuals through chiropractic care. A Palmer College of Chiropractic graduate holding a Doctorate in Chiropractic, Dr. Harrison has extensive experience and training in the field. He is on the path to full NUCCA Board Certification, an honor held by less than 40 NUCCA doctors worldwide. The rigorous certification process ensures patients receive precise upper cervical NUCCA corrections of the highest standard.

At The Balanced Atlas, patients can expect a welcoming and modern clinic at 2121 19th Ave Suite 100, San Francisco, CA. The clinic's clean, comfortable, accessible facilities create an environment conducive to healing and recovery. With business hours from Monday to Thursday, 8:00 am to 6:00 pm (closed for lunch from 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm), The Balanced Atlas offers convenience for patients seeking specialized Upper Cervical Chiropractic care.

The Upper Cervical Chiropractic service at The Balanced Atlas is specifically tailored to individuals who have recently experienced concussions or are struggling with upper cervical issues. By targeting the area of highest instability?the upper cervical spine?skilled chiropractors address misalignment that directly affects the brain's healing process, providing patients with a vital piece of the post-concussion recovery puzzle.

Dr. Harrison shared his passion for chiropractic care, saying, "Every day, I witness the life-changing impact of Chiropractic care on patients and their families. My mission is to improve the health of as many families as possible. With The Balanced Atlas, we are dedicated to restoring the lives of those suffering from post-concussion symptoms."
