Round Rock Bounce House Rentals is a family-owned business dedicated to providing safe, clean, and fun-filled inflatables for children's parties and events. The company's offerings are not just about fun; they also promote physical activity, helping children burn off energy in a safe and enjoyable environment.

"We're not just in the business of renting out inflatables," said Edward Flynn, owner of Round Rock Bounce House Rentals. "We're in the business of creating beautiful childhood memories. Our goal is to provide a safe and fun environment where kids can be kids, and parents can have peace of mind."

The company offers a variety of inflatables, including themed bounce houses, water slides, and combo units.

Themes range from popular characters like Batman, Frozen, and Mickey Mouse, to princesses and superheroes. In addition to inflatables, the company also rents out party extras like cotton candy machines, popcorn machines, and dunk tanks.

Round Rock Bounce House Rentals is committed to safety and insists on supervised play in all their bounce house rentals. They offer the services of friendly, experienced, and responsible representatives to supervise children at events for a small fee.
