"Blinds offer precise control over natural light," says the spokesperson for the company. "You can choose from several materials such as wood, composites, aluminum, and more to design a space that suits your needs. Customers can also opt for shutters and shades that block out all light for a distinctive indoor look and addressing privacy concerns. Our drapery solutions can be a great addition to your home if you are looking for the perfect interior décor. We can also help install smart solutions that move your shutters or blinds with the touch of a button or voice command."

To help create custom window treatment solutions for its clients, Bumble Bee Blinds offers free in-home measurements. Customers can look forward to a site visit from its technicians who arrive stocked with a wide variety of samples and all the equipment needed to measure the window frame, grommet, and valance spaces with precision. After the measurements have been taken, customers can engage with the company's designers to get acquainted with the options available to them and pick the right one for their requirements.

Following the in-home design consultation, the company starts working on a plan of action that is clearly communicated to the homeowners. Bumble Bee Blinds walks customers through every step of the design and installation, letting them know when to expect its technicians at their door. Moreover, the installations are performed by seasoned veterans in the industry as all its installers have completed rigorous training and certifications and have years of experience in the field.

"Customers are our highest priority," says the spokesperson for Bumble Bee Blinds of South Austin. "So, we always communicate the progress of the installation while we are working with you.
