September 11, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Windy City Fence Company, a company based in Chicago, IL, that specializes in custom-designed solutions for residential and commercial fencing projects, wants to point out that they are offering free no-obligation estimates. The company is well-experienced in fencing projects having been in the fencing industry for over 15 years. To get a free quote, one will simply need to fill out an online form on their website or contact them on the phone.

A spokesperson for Windy City Fence Company says, "Our team of experienced fence professionals are equipped to handle all types of projects, from temporary fence installs to long-term installations. We understand how difficult it can be to find a fence solution that fits both the unique design and topography on your property, but our knowledgeable staff is here to make the process as easy as possible for you. From hillsides and wooded areas to creeks that require extra care when designing a fence line, Windy City Fence Company has done it all. We encourage you to request for a free quote if you are preparing for a fencing project."

They want to emphasize that their team specializes in the use of the most advanced materials that can withstand even extreme weather conditions, including heavy snowfall and strong winds from storms and hurricanes. For residential projects, they can deliver various services, such as: chain link fences; Chicago ornamental iron fences; arbors and lattice fences; dog kennels; iron railings; composite material fences; vinyl fences; window guards; mailboxes; wrought iron fences; and wood fences. For commercial fences, they can offer: bumper posts; chain link fittings; barbed wire / razor ribbon fencing; commercial chain link fences; commercial electric gate openers; Chicago ornamental iron fences; perimeter security fence; wrought iron fences; and inside security fencing.

Windy City Fence Company has established a reputation as a leader when it comes to commercial fences in the Chicago areas. They have more than 25 years of combined experience, offering fence solutions to commercial clients ranging from small companies to big corporations and government agencies. The spokesperson says, "We are experts at designing and installing the perfect fence for any application. Whether you need a basic gate or an intricate system for your entire location, we can provide a customized solution that caters to your exact needs. Our team has considerable experience with creating innovative designs and implementing them with precision while also paying attention to aesthetics."

They assure clients that they only use quality materials, such as PVC coated chain link fencing, galvanized steel, or aluminum fencing in their installations to ensure security and long-term value. They also employ specialized tools and equipment such as metal grinders and hydraulic press brakes for challenging fencing projects that require special attention to detail and custom designs.

The chain link fence is a common choice for providing security and privacy for various kinds of properties. Its link-type structure and jointed posts make this type of fencing a lot more durable compared to other kinds of fencing. Chain link fences are used in residential, commercial, and industrial properties, and Windy City Fence Company offers these fences at competitive prices.

Established in 2011, Windy City Fence Company is a fully licensed, insured and bonded, family-owned and operated company with a team of fencing professionals have a combined experience of more than 25 years. They have the capability to handle any kind of fencing project and they provide a free no-obligation estimate and a guarantee for any project they undertake. They offer a comprehensive range of fencing products and installation services, such as custom-made fences. They have two showrooms and carry some of the biggest inventories of fencing products. They have been providing their services to the residential and commercial markets, including some of the largest companies in Chicago, including celebrities, business executives, athletes, and in state, federal, and local governments.

Those who have a residential or commercial fencing project in Chicago and neighboring areas can check out the Windy City Fence Company website or contact them through the telephone or by email. They are open from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm at any day of the week.
