Mighty Dog Roofing of Midlands South Carolina is helping local homeowners maintain the integrity and longevity of their roofs with its range of roof installation, repair, and maintenance services. For more details, visit web site.

With a range of services offered, including roofing, gutters, siding, and windows, Mighty Dog Roofing is the one-stop shop for local homeowners and commercial property owners to get all their roofing needs taken care of. Along with Midlands, where it is based, the roofing contractor also serves customers in nearby Columbia, West Columbia, Cayce, Lexington, Chapin, Irmo, Blythewood, Forest Acres, Lugoff, and Red Bank.

The residential and commercial roofing contractor can handle jobs of all sizes and scopes as no project is too large or too small for its team of roofing experts to take on. Whether homeowners want to get a small leak fixed or are looking for a complete roof teardown and replacement, Mighty Dog Roofing has the expertise and experience to get the issue resolved on time and within the property owner's budget.

Customers can also rely on its 25-point detailed inspections to diagnose roofing problems. The process entails inspecting nail heads, roof edging, valleys, drip edges, eaves rakes, soffits and fascia, hips and ridges, roof ventilation and exhaust systems, roof sheathing or decking, step counter flashing, furnace caps, pipes, chimneys, plumbing stacks, gutters, gutter aprons, foundation drainage, downspouts, siding, A/C unit exterior, windows, skylights, ventilation, attic, storm hail damage, and storm wind damage.

The company's high-quality roofing services are backed up by several high-tech solutions that make inspections, design, and record-keeping easy for homeowners. For example, homeowners who want to personalize their property's aesthetics can rely on the Mighty Dog Visualizer. The app, which is available for smartphones, allows homeowners to use before and after tools to virtually select different roofing products and color options to find out which ones are the right fit for their tastes. For more information, visit company website.

All the information about preferred roofing products and designs can then be saved in the Mighty Dog Customer Vault. It offers convenient long-term records access by saving information such as photos and videos, annually updated drone information, warranty information, repair records, manufacturer information, insurance information, and reports for realtors/insurance agents. The customer vault allows homeowners to set up annual reminders for roof inspections as well as track all repairs and replacements with dates, products, and services used.

The owner of the Midlands franchise of Mighty Dog Roofing, Cole Simpson, shares his reason behind choosing the venture by saying, "I spent years in Charlotte, North Carolina, honing my entrepreneurial skills while still longing for a time when I could return home to South Carolina, my home, and serve the community that I cherish and love. So, now that I have made my dream come true, my mission is to be your trusted and dependable ally for everything related to roofing. It is my way of giving back to my hometown - by combining my passion for real estate with my desire to serve the good people living here."

Mighty Dog Roofing of Midlands South Carolina has been repeatedly praised by local homeowners and businesses for always delivering top-notch roofing services. In their reviews, customers note the company's attention to detail, the professionalism of the crew members, and the customer service provided by the helpful staff.

A review on its Google Business Profile says, "I am extremely happy I contacted Mighty Dog Roofing for my roofing and window needs. Rob Green was able to apply Solar as well and I used my tax incentives for going solar to pay for the roof and windows! It's nice to have a local business that can do everything under the roof! I'd highly recommend Mighty Dog Roofing and Rob to anyone! Thank you, Mighty Dog Roofing!"
