October 24, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

BC Stone, a business based in Silverwater, NSW, Australia, is focused on the wholesale provision of natural stone for the construction of homes and other buildings. It showcases its wide range of natural stone products in its show room at Silverwater. It is their goal to always ensure customer satisfaction with regards to quality, finishes, colours, and variety. They can provide natural stone slabs and tiles, natural stone mosaics, limestone, marble, quartzite, granite, and travertine.

A spokesperson for BC Stone says, "If you are tired of dealing with last-minute stone selections, cost overruns, and inferior products, make BC Stone your supplier and you will experience the difference in having a superior provider on your team. As one of the premium natural stone suppliers in Sydney, BC Stone provides natural stone slabs in a wide variety of materials (Dolomite, Granite, Limestone, Marble, Quartzite, Sedimentary Rock and Travertine), colours, shapes, and sizes which are sourced from the quarries in Europe, South America, Asia and Africa."

BC Stone - Direct Importers of Natural Stone have developed the reputation of being one of the top companies offering natural stone, mosaic, and tile supply. Their experts are working with leading companies to source slabs and tiles as fast as required by certain projects. The spokesperson says, "With more than 100 impressive natural stone styles available, we are premium suppliers of marble, quartzite, limestone, basalt, travertine, granite, and onyx slabs. Our natural stone slabs are available to custom cut to meet the needs of your specific project."

They want to emphasise that natural stone is easy to clean, hard-wearing, incredibly unique, and low maintenance. Their collection of natural stones include: marble for a touch of luxury; limestone for a versatile and tough material; quartzite with its natural beauty; mosaic for a piece of art in each tile; and travertine that is beautiful indoors or outdoors.

The spokesperson explains, "As one of Australia's leading natural stone experts, BC Stone uses the highest quality marble, travertine, limestone, and more. Whether it's a set of bathroom tiles or a massive, custom-cut natural stone slab, we know how important quality and consistency are in the final outcome."

It is important to note that BC Stone provides comprehensive services for natural stone. They do not just source, supply, and design the natural stone products but they can also provide the installations. They can offer installations for a: kitchen bench, island bench, splashback, basin, vanity, custom made stone tabletops, feature wall, and custom marble furniture.

The spokesperson says, "Our exquisite selection of natural stone tiles is a perfect solution to transform your indoor and outdoor spaces into a work of art. We provide tiles in a variety of colours from natural beige tones to deep greys with stunning veins. Bianco Carrara, Grigio, Ocean Blue and Ceppo tiles are some of the most sought tiles which come in different dimensions to suit your projects. Additionally, we can fabricate custom-sized tiles from any natural stone of your choice from our stocks. We will ensure your selection of tiles are individually inspected with the dry lay process to maintain quality control, providing only the best for BC Stone clients."

Founded in 2020, BC Stone has committed itself to the wholesale provision and production of natural stone using the latest manufacturing methods. The natural stone they provide is quarried and then process based on strict specifications, which allows them to supply high quality natural stone products. Their stone is fabricated in a broad range of specialized surface finishes, including honed, brushed, polished, rustic tumbled, bush-hammered, etc. The quarries of their vendors are located in Italy, Portugal, Spain, Greece, Brazil, the Middle East, Turkey, and China. The natural stone products are available in a wide variety of brilliantly infused colours.

Those who are interested in natural stone and other gardening products can visit the BC Stone website or contact them on the phone or through email. They are open from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm from Monday to Friday and from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm on Saturdays.
