City Wide Printing Hub, which is based in East Orange, NJ, is offering an online printing platform for various kinds of print and informational products, such as business cards and post cards, at competitive and affordable prices. They want to emphasize that they can provide business cards, post cards, and similar products fast. They can print various kinds of products, such as standard business cards, clear view business cards, high gloss business cards, and silk laminated business cards. They can also provide postcards, whether high gloss postcards or silk laminated post cards.

They offer various kinds of print products, such as: postcards, flyers, rack cards, pamphlets or brochures, posters, door hangers, presentation folders, folded business cards, tent cards, return address labels, banners, x frame banners, canvas, envelopes, letterhead, notepads, party invitations, appointment cards, moving announcements, holiday cards, birthday cards, wedding invitations, save-the-date cards, birthday invitations, birth announcements, calendars, magnets, promotional products, business cards, and more.

Clinton Robinson from City Wide Printing Hub says, "We offer quality business card printing, customized to suit your requirements. Customize yours and be remembered. Note that you can have double sided business cards by selecting the printed side to front and back."

They offer US Standard or Slim sizes and a broad range of design alternatives for business cards. Customers can either upload or create their own design. Customers can also use a price calculator on the City Wide Printing Hub website to get an estimate of the cost of the kind of business cards they will be ordering. They can simply indicate the size, quantity, the type of printing desired whether it is front only or front and back, upgrade requests such as the use of thicker paper, and whether the customer wants to hire a designer.

City Wide Printing Hub can also print postcards that can be used for various purposes, including for promoting an event, instructional cards, and also as coupons. They offer aesthetically designed postcards that are: available in a range of sizes and in various paper finishes and different kinds of bundling. They can assure customers that they can provide fast turnaround times. Just like with the business cards, they also provide an online price calculator for postcards to allow customers to get a cost estimate for their planned order.

Also available from City Wide Printing Hub are flyers. Available are high gloss flyers and standard flyers. The spokesperson says, "Create a tactile experience for your customers with personalized flyers and promote your business or advertise new offerings with standard flyers. You can use flyers as takeaway menus or even a mini brochure." These are available in a variety of sizes and in fine digital printing on quality paper. Folding options and matte lamination may be requested. They also offer various kinds of bundling and fast turnaround times.

They also print pamphlets or brochures, which can be used as practical marketing tools for business campaigns. They can be employed as take-away menus or as guides for travel and events. They can also print vinyl banners that can last for a long time and offer a great way to promote the products or services of a business. These banners can be printed in minutes and four-color printing is available in different kinds of card stock.

City Wide Printing Hub provides a premier online printing platform providing personal, promotional, commercial, and informational print products at competitive prices. They offer a wide range of well-known products for business cards, envelopes, letterheads, greeting cards, postcards, flyers, posters, brochures and many more. They have thousands of pre-loaded templates and customizable products, and their experts can produce custom print products for customers. Customers can choose their style, design, shipping, quantity, and payment mode, and then leave the rest to City Wide Printing Hub.
