Singer, songwriter, and multi-instrumentalist Sarah James is offering a range of jazz-inspired merch on her website with the latest launch item from the lineup being the Red Girl Fiery Hand "KEEP IT LIT" shower curtain. Readers can find out more about Sarah James by visiting <http://www.sarahjames.com>.

Featuring a piece of graffiti art that Sarah James found while walking in the East Village in NYC, the art depicts a red-skinned girl with a determined expression on her face. Complementing her assured and confident look is her extended hand which is engulfed in flames and accompanied by a caption that says, "Keep It Lit."

Sarah James talks about what the picture represents to her by saying, "Need a reminder to stay focused and move forward with grace and determination? Here it is! Wake up to this GIRL and look out world. No holds barred, flat out, kick in the butt, take no prisoners, silence your critics and get going."

The Sarah James Jazz Merch collection is born out of her hunt for inspiring messages, images, and ideas as she makes her way from parking her car to her destination in NYC's East Village. The ephemeral nature of graffiti, which gets taken down and put up in unending cycles, is what makes Sarah's efforts to preserve the artwork important both to the unnamed artist and the community.

Sarah shares more of what the image means to her on the product listing by saying, "Are you in the mood for an edgy, colorful morning? Here's your chance to wage war with your inner demons and come out fighting. This photograph was taken in The East Village, NYC. I don't know who the artist is, and by now I'm sure it has been taken down or altered to the point of no return by people putting their 2 cents over the image!"

She continues, "I love this because of the vibrant colors and the message that I put on it. "KEEP IT LIT" to me means to keep going no matter what. It's so important to stay inspired to follow your passion and somehow create beauty and good in this crazy world. My photos, music, and poems are what I can do to keep things rolling! So, "KEEP IT LIT"!!!!?

Available for $60 excluding tax, the shower curtain is 71 inches wide and 74 inches tall. It is made from 100% synthetic polyester which means that it is extremely strong and durable, retains its shape, and dries quickly. The curtain also comes with 12 buttonholes at the top for hook placement. The product listing recommends washing the item with only a cold machine wash with similar color garments using a gentle cycle. It can be tumble-dried on low settings or hung dried but under no circumstances should it be bleached or dry cleaned.
