One of the nature-inspired pieces in the collection is the ?Feather Tulips, Ranunculus, Peony, Purple Freesia Spring Bouquet.? The photo is a flower arrangement from William Wurtch, owner of Beethoven's Veranda in Edgewater, NJ. Sarah snapped the image when she had the fortune to work there under William?s watchful eye, the latter of whom is a master floral purveyor and a diligent hunter of the best flowers in the Tri-State area.

The collection also features a graffiti art piece named ?Red Girl Fiery Hand "KEEP IT LIT".? Photographed by Sarah during a walk in NYC?s East Village, Sarah frames the image as a chance for buyers to start every day with an edgy, colorful morning. In the product description, she says, ?Here's your chance to wage war with your inner demons and come out fighting.?

The collection also boasts a sunny natural landscape, namely ?Bog #1 Ashokan NY.? The photograph, which was taken right outside the entrance to the Ashokan Reservoir in Upstate NY, showcases a clear day with blue skies, water lilies, striking grass, and calm peaceful waters. Sarah says, ?The whole area is so beautiful, you just have to see it.?

All the shower curtains in the collection are available for $60 excluding tax. Each curtain is 71 inches wide and 74 inches tall and is made from 100% synthetic polyester which means that it is extremely strong and durable, retains its shape, and dries quickly. The curtain also comes with 12 buttonholes at the top for hook placement.
