

Buckhead Paws Releases List of Questions Pet Owners Should Ask Dog Walkers

December 29, 2015

December 29, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The professionals at Buckhead Paws have released a new blog post entitled "18 Crucial Questions You Should Ask Your Professional Dog Walker", and the new article gives pet owners insight with the perspective of industry pros.

Buckhead Paws recommends that pet owners ask their prospective dog walkers questions such as "Are you bonded and insured?", "What is your protocol for emergency?", "What types of leashes do you use?", "Do you offer trial walks?", and "How many dog sitters do you use and what does their rotation look like?".

By asking questions such as the ones outlined in the article, pet owners can get a better idea of how professional and reliable their prospective dog walker is. More information can be found at <http://buckheadpaws.com/18-crucial-questions-you-should-ask-your-professional-dog-walker/>.
