Instant Sourcing UK, a promotional product business in Sandhurst, United Kingdom, is proud to announce that they now have over 100,000 products in their books. These products can be shipped to the global market. As one of the largest promotional products UK businesses, they are now making their mark around the world.

Stephen Smith from Instant Sourcing UK says: "We have worked tirelessly to become the largest promotional product supplier in the country and are aiming towards becoming the largest in the world. We do this by linking to a variety of other suppliers, working together to make sure anyone is able to access the products they need. Never in our wildest dreams did we expect we would be able to have 100,000 products this quickly though. A big thank you to our team, and to our loyal customers, for making this possible."

Instant Sourcing, Ltd prides itself on the incredibly high standard of moral and ethical values that they offer. They link to catalogs and search functions of external suppliers, but they do check whether or not these suppliers are ethical and appropriate. Their goal is to make sure that people are able to get the highest quality promotional products and that these do not cause any negative effects on the planet as a whole.

The work done by the company have been very positively received. "I love how I can always go to Instant Sourcing for the best possible promotional products," says Marie C., a principal at a local primary school. "However, they do so much more than that as well. They actually provide me with the advice I need to find the right products and to get the most out of them as well. They don't just want me to buy their stuff, in other words, they actually want me to be able to see a return on investment on them. With their ethical stance to this, it quickly becomes clear why I will go nowhere else."

People are encouraged to visit the company's website or its YouTube channel for more information on the various products and how to use them.
