

IMHO Reviews Free Mindvalley Hypnosis Webinar with Paul McKenna

August 23, 2024

AVENTURA, FL - August 23, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

IMHO Reviews has just shared with their audience an exclusive opportunity to experience professional hypnotherapy with the globally renowned Paul McKenna through a free webinar hosted by Mindvalley. This event is an invitation to demystify hypnosis, understand its true potential, and explore its impact on personal growth and the world around us. The webinar will be available for viewing for 24 hours only.

"Hypnosis isn't, like many people think, just about relaxation—it's a very powerful tool for personal transformation. Whether you're curious about hypnosis and looking to understand its true potential, or considering a career in hypnotherapy, Mindvalley's webinar with Paul McKenna offers a unique opportunity to learn from one of the world's leading experts," said the founder of IMHO Reviews, Vitaliy Lano.

The webinar will help attendees gain a clear understanding of what hypnosis is, how it works, and the common misconceptions surrounding it. It will show how hypnosis can help people better understand themselves, improve mental clarity, and positively influence those around them. Attendees will also learn how understanding hypnosis can help them guard against unwanted influences in today's world, where subliminal messages constantly target their subconscious minds.

As Lano pointed out, "We are constantly bombarded by messages designed to bypass our conscious mind and speak directly to our subconscious. Understanding hypnosis is the first step in protecting yourself from toxic influences and manipulation. As a hypnotherapist myself, I believe that learning about hypnosis is also crucial for personal growth. In a world filled with subliminal messaging, being aware of how our subconscious is influenced helps us better navigate life."

Registration for Mindvalley's webinar is free and is available through the Mindvalley platform. Paul McKenna, a globally recognized hypnotherapist, will guide attendees through the fundamentals of hypnosis. The session will cover how hypnosis works, and its applications for modern-day challenges like mental health, addiction, and performance enhancement. McKenna will also share real-life examples of how hypnotherapy has transformed lives, providing a practical understanding of its potential.

For those interested in pursuing a career in hypnotherapy, the webinar will also provide insights into the Mindvalley Certified Hypnotherapist program. In just 16 weeks, this IAPCP-accredited course equips participants with the skills to create lasting behavioral change in themselves and others.

The program includes world-class training, live coaching sessions, and hands-on practice. Participants will gain a deep understanding of hypnotherapy techniques and how to apply them effectively. Upon completion, graduates will be recognized as certified hypnotherapists, prepared to build a successful practice.

Attendees of the webinar will have access to a limited-time offer for the Mindvalley Certified Hypnotherapist program. This special discount is only available for a short period following the event. The next intake of the program will begin on September 16, 2024.

"If a hypnotherapy career is not something you are interested in but you still want to learn more about hypnosis, then you can take one of Paul McKenna's courses on Mindvalley. Both "Total Self Confidence" and "Everyday Bliss" are included in Mindvalley Membership," added Lano.

Mindvalley Membership, priced at $399 per year is currently offered with a 50% discount as a part of the Summer Promo. It includes unlimited access to over a hundred personal development programs created by the world's top-tier teachers.
