

Go Industries Unveils Durable Chevy Police Push Bumpers for Enhanced Vehicle Protection

September 17, 2024

Richardson, TX - September 17, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Go Industries Inc. has just launched a new line of Chevy police push bumpers, including the Push Bumper Center Section designed specifically for Chevrolet Tahoe models from 2015 to 2020. This new product is geared towards law enforcement vehicles, ensuring both style and durability. Available under SKU 38737, customers can purchase it directly from the Go Industries website.

Made in the USA, the new push bumper features a fully welded, one-piece construction. This makes the product durable and reliable, crucial for the tough conditions law enforcement vehicles often face. It includes 1.9-inch, 14-gauge cross tubes, 1/4-inch uprights, and a heavy-duty 11-gauge shelf plate. It also comes with heavy-duty push pads already installed and has a semi-gloss powder coat finish. Plus, all necessary brackets and hardware come with the bumper, making installation easy.

"Go Industries has always been dedicated to providing high-quality accessories for trucks and law enforcement vehicles," said a representative from the company. "This new push bumper is part of our ongoing effort to deliver products that meet the specific needs of our customers. We believe the combination of durability, style, and functionality will make this product a favorite among law enforcement agencies."

These new Chevy push bumpers are custom-fit for each vehicle, ensuring maximum protection and a seamless appearance. The use of heavy-duty materials and meticulous craftsmanship guarantees years of reliable use. With a focus on protecting both the front and back ends of the vehicle, this product significantly enhances the safety of law enforcement vehicles during operations.

Besides the Chevy police push bumpers, Go Industries offers a wide range of products and services. These include truck accessories such as grille guards, winch application systems, bumper replacements, air flow tailgates, headache racks, mud flaps, and steps. For law enforcement vehicles, the company provides specialized equipment and accessories for Chevrolet, Dodge, and Ford vehicles, including protective skid plates. For further details on their extensive range of offerings and to explore the specific accessories available, visit Go Industries' truck and law enforcement product pages.

Go Industries also offers custom manufacturing services. This allows customers to request specific product designs and get quotes directly from the company's website, ensuring they receive products that precisely fit their needs.

The Push Bumper Center Section for the Chevrolet Tahoe is currently on sale, with the price reduced from $568.78 to $426.60. Designed specifically for law enforcement, this push bumper offers both durability and style. Its robust construction promises to withstand the rigors of law enforcement use, providing reliable vehicle protection.

"We are excited to introduce the new 2021 Tahoe push bumper to our product line," said a Go Industries representative. "Our goal is to offer products that not only meet but exceed the expectations of our clients. This item has been rigorously tested to ensure it provides the durability and functionality needed for law enforcement applications."

Go Industries also focuses on providing excellent customer support. The company offers multiple resources on its website, including product instructions, a product catalog, warranty information, and videos. Customers can reach out via the contact form or by calling customer service.

The company prides itself on its Platinum Status with SEMA, showing a high level of service and product quality. This status reflects the company's commitment to excellence and its dedication to meeting the needs of a diverse customer base.

In addition, Go Industries has embraced modern payment methods by accepting cryptocurrencies. This flexibility makes it easier for customers to complete their transactions conveniently.
