

Rising Star Ben Killen Returns to Instagram After 5yr Hiatus with B.D. Killen Music Group

October 28, 2024

New York, New York - October 28, 2024 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

B.D. Killen Music Group is excited to announce that its main artist, Ben Killen, is making a comeback on Instagram. After more than five years away from social media, Ben is reopening his account to connect and interact with fans. He took a break from these platforms due to growing frustrations with the negative aspects of social media and the lack of effective solutions from major tech companies.

Ben's revival on Instagram is a big move towards building a direct connection with his audience again. The platform will play an important role in sharing stories, launching exclusive content, and hosting contests and giveaways. Fans can expect to catch updates on new music releases and videos in real-time. To stay informed and join the experience, visit <https://instagram.com/ChillinLikeAKillen> for updates on his activities and music.

"We're excited about Ben's decision to reconnect with fans through Instagram," says the CEO of B.D. Killen Music Group. "When used positively, social media can be an amazing tool for artists to share their journey and creativity directly with their audience. This move is about creating a space where artistic expression and community can flourish together."

Alongside this Instagram return, B.D. Killen Music Group is pushing Ben's latest single, "Singing River Blues." This track highlights Ben's unique artistic expression and is being well-received by listeners across music platforms. You can follow Ben's music story, including this new single, at <http://tiktok.com/@bdkillen>. Additionally, fans can explore Ben's multifaceted career, including his role as an entrepreneur with projects like CowgirlRadio.com, a platform dedicated to showcasing the talent and stories of women in music.

In the near future, fans should keep an eye out for the release of the official Historical Lyric Video for "Singing River Blues." This video promises to offer a richer understanding of the song's themes and its historical background, thereby enhancing the audience's listening experience through powerful visual storytelling.

Ben's renewed engagement with social media is a meaningful development for both his career and for music fans who enjoy a closer, more personal experience with artists. In a constantly changing music scene, artists like Ben Killen are discovering innovative ways to stay relevant while remaining true to their artistic vision.

"We believe that connecting with fans on a personal level is essential," the CEO stated. "Ben has always valued authenticity in his interactions, and bringing his presence back to Instagram allows for genuine exchanges of ideas and experiences."

Fans are encouraged to be part of Ben's new social media journey, where they'll find regular updates, behind-the-scenes content, and a sense of community among fellow fans. B.D. Killen Music Group invites everyone to participate in this lively space for engagement and connection.
