

New Blues and Americana Journey: B.D. Killen's Latest Track Featured on Blues Playlist

February 05, 2025

New York, New York - February 05, 2025 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

B.D. Killen Music Group has just announced that Ben Killen's latest track, "Singing River Blues," has been added to the playlist "Don's Tunes - New Blues | Blues Rock | Americana." This inclusion is an important milestone for Ben Killen as it places his song among other respected Blues and Americana tracks. Being featured on this playlist highlights Killen's dedication to the Blues and showcases his fresh approach to the genre.

Ben Killen, renowned for his impressive musical presence and soulful Blues style, offers a genuine experience with "Singing River Blues." Listeners can stream and download the song at <https://benkillen.bandcamp.com/>. The track vividly describes personal stories and captures the true spirit of Blues music. There are clear influences from greats like William Christopher Handy, bringing together respect for Blues history with a modern flair.

B.D. Killen, the creative force behind B.D. Killen Music Group, expressed, "Having 'Singing River Blues' on our first Spotify playlist is a truly proud moment. It connects with fans of the genre and spreads the Blues to more listeners. This song is a mix of tradition and new ideas, and I'm thrilled it's getting attention."

Releasing this single is part of how B.D. Killen Music Group promotes unique sounds and talents. The company, known for creating experiences that push musical boundaries, continues to back Killen's goal to make music that respects history while looking forward.

Fans can dive into "Singing River Blues" and explore other songs through the links provided. On Spotify, you can find this specialized playlist for Blues enthusiasts at <https://open.spotify.com/playlist/6arDWpKzLtGAiBBpwTxN7v>, inviting listeners to experience Killen's work alongside that of his peers.

Killen's influence goes far beyond music. He is involved in projects like visual arts, books, and even an online radio station, CowgirlRadio.com. This station endeavors to elevate women's voices in the world of music, addressing ongoing gender disparities in the industry. By visiting CowgirlRadio.com, listeners can engage with a platform that dedicates itself to elevating the stories and talents of female artists, broadening the cultural dialogue within the music community.

But for Ben, bringing this his new solo Blues track into fruition wasn't something he couldn't go at alone. Rusty Zimmerman, a well-known Brooklyn-based artist, was commissioned to create the original oil painting, producing artwork for the single's cover, enriching the experience for Killen's fans. This collaboration exemplifies the relationship between music and visual arts, central to B.D. Killen's artistic goals.

Killen challenges the music world's current trends, especially in a market dominated by streaming. His efforts focus on the hurdles musicians face today, helping to ensure music remains lively and available.

The debut of "Singing River Blues" on its first playlist is a new chapter for B.D. Killen Music Group and invites listeners into an auditory journey crafted by a dedicated artist. Whether you're a fan or new to his work, the full musical experience is open to exploration on different streaming platforms, encouraging a deep dive into the Blues.

B.D. Killen notes, "Being part of this well-curated playlist is a significant achievement. It reinforces the impact of music and underscores the deep connection music can build with audiences."
