February 10, 2025 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Ginnis, Krathen & Zelnick, P.A., a leading Fort Lauderdale personal injury law firm, is proud to announce that Miguel A. Amador has been named to the prestigious 2025 Florida Super Lawyers list for his excellence in personal injury law, including car accidents, wrongful death, and catastrophic injury cases.

Miguel's recognition underscores his exceptional skills and commitment to his clients in personal injury law. This honor reflects his tireless work and reputation for achieving successful outcomes for clients, as well as his continued dedication to delivering the highest quality legal representation. Miguel A. Amador is a trusted advocate for victims of serious accidents, including car accidents, truck accidents, slip-and-falls, and wrongful death cases.

"We are thrilled that Miguel has earned this well-deserved recognition," said Eric Ginnis, Founding Partner of Ginnis, Krathen & Zelnick, P.A. "His unwavering dedication to his clients and his exemplary legal expertise have set him apart in the field. This accolade highlights the excellence and hard work of our entire team.?

Super Lawyers, a Thomson Reuters service, recognizes the top 5% of lawyers in each state through a rigorous selection process. The list is compiled based on peer nominations, evaluations, and independent research. Being named to the Super Lawyers list is a mark of distinction in the legal community and is widely respected as a validation of a lawyer's skill and integrity.

"I am honored to be recognized by Super Lawyers," said Miguel A. Amador. "This acknowledgment is a reflection of the trust and confidence my clients have placed in me, as well as the dedication of my colleagues at Ginnis, Krathen & Zelnick. We will continue to fight for justice for those who need it most."
