

Our Client Won an Award: Small Business Coach Associates Celebrates Dance Studio Triumph

February 20, 2025

February 20, 2025 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Small Business Coach Associates is proud to announce that Beth Bradley, the owner of Dance Without Limits, a dance studio and one of SBCA's dedicated clients, has won the esteemed Best Dance Studio award. Her studio stands out not only for its artistic excellence but also for its strong business skills. Beth's path from financial difficulties to thriving success is captured in the study, From $44K to $1.1M Beth's Dance Studio Success Story.

Beth first connected with Small Business Coach Associates while dealing with financial challenges. Back then, her studio generated just $44,000 in yearly sales, causing stress and an overwhelming work-life balance. With guidance from Small Business Coach Associates, she developed strategic plans, utilized performance metrics, and improved marketing efforts. As a result, her studio now enjoys a booming $1.1 million in annual sales.

Alan Melton, who founded and leads Small Business Coach Associates, said, "Business coaching is about transformation. Seeing clients achieve their dreams is rewarding. Beth's success testifies to the impact of strategic direction and perseverance." More about Melton's philosophy and the services they offer can be found online.

Beth has earned recognition as the CEO of the Year for dance studio owners and has received the Business Resilience Award, solidifying her status as a leader in her sector. Reflecting on her success, Beth mentioned how applying for awards made a big difference. While many avoid self-promotion, she found it crucial for growth, stating, "Every award enhances our reputation."
