May 08, 2025 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Elite Roofing & Solar recently received recognition as the best roofing company denver from Westword's Best of Denver 2025 awards. This award showcases their ongoing commitment to providing top-notch roofing and solar services throughout Colorado. Announced in March 2025 by Westword, it highlights the trust and support that Elite Roofing & Solar has gained from its community and clients over the years.

The company is well-known for delivering a full range of roofing services and solar solutions, operating under the Engineering, Procurement, and Construction (EPC) model. This approach helps streamline processes and ensures efficient service delivery. As a residential roofing contractor denver, Elite Roofing & Solar caters to residential, commercial, and multi-family properties, providing a variety of clients with top-quality roofing and solar services that are customized to meet specific needs. Their commitment to quality is evident in services such as roof replacement, roof repairs, storm damage repair, and solar roof installations.

Cody Hayes of Elite Roofing & Solar expressed his gratitude for the recognition and emphasized the role community support played in earning the award. "Being named the best roofing company in Denver is a significant milestone for us," he remarked. "It reflects the trust our clients have in us and the commitment of our team to deliver excellent services."

A key factor in the company's strong reputation is the hard work and dedication of its skilled technicians and staff. They work continuously to provide dependable roofing and solar services that are both durable and energy-efficient. The award is particularly significant as it is awarded by Denver residents, underscoring the positive impact of Elite Roofing & Solar in the local area. This community recognition not only supports the company's service quality but also aligns with its mission to deliver sustainable, dependable solutions. Each project is a step forward in their pursuit of excellence.

For businesses, Elite Roofing & Solar operates as a commercial roofing contractor denver, offering customized solutions that address specific structural and energy needs. These services are key to helping businesses lower operational costs while promoting sustainability in their operations.

The areas served by Elite Roofing & Solar go beyond Denver to include various communities around Colorado. By providing free roof inspections and solar consultations, they ensure clients have the knowledge and expertise required to make well-informed decisions about their properties. Businesses and homeowners alike can benefit from services like EPDM and TPO commercial roofing, which contribute to the longevity and efficiency of the building's envelope.

Elite Roofing & Solar encourages anyone interested in evaluating their roofing or solar needs to reach out. Scheduling an inspection or consultation can help identify and address potential issues before they escalate into major problems.

The team at Elite Roofing & Solar takes pride in their continued excellence and innovation. Each team member is committed to upholding the standards that earned them the Best of Denver 2025 award. This recognition inspires them to keep delivering the best for their clients and the community.

For those thinking about joining the ranks of satisfied Elite Roofing & Solar clients, the company invites customers to experience their commitment to quality and community involvement. Setting up a consultation or inspection today can lay the groundwork for a more sustainable and secure property in the future.
