SOHO Consignments, a furniture store in Raleigh NC, is celebrating its fifth year in business. The company focuses specifically on upscale furniture selection in keeping with its namesake, the SoHo area of Lower Manhattan in New York City. The Soho area in New York is known as one of the most avant-garde, fashion forward parts of the city and is renowned for its art galleries and upscale boutiques. In fact the term, "SoHo" actually refers to the area South of Houston Street in New York, but in the world of furniture it is also a play on the words "Sophisticated Home."

Trish Yovanovich of SOHO Consignments says: "When shopping for Raleigh furniture, the minute you walk into our store, you know you have arrived in one of the most unique furniture stores you've ever seen. We are so happy to celebrate our fifth year. They have been five amazing years and we couldn't have done it without the continued trust and support of our customers."

SOHO Consignments wants to be a shop that is both special and fun. At the same time, they want to be able to interact with their customers, which is why they have also launched a Facebook page, which can be reached at <https://www.facebook.com/sohoconsignments/>. Here, they share information about their latest additions to their store, and also information on how to care for different pieces and more. It is also an opportunity for customers to communicate directly with the store and leave testimonials.

In terms of testimonials, it is easy to see why this shop has become so popular over the past five years. "This is awesome "green" shopping," says Shelly F. "Beautiful selections and fantastic people. Lots of variety of styles and terrific accessories with plenty of art to choose from. Very sophisticated home looks."

The store is always looking for new upscale pieces to add to their collection. They have anything from vintage antique tables to mid-century armoires and more. Trish, who sees the store as her home, wants to make sure people will find items that are beautiful, comfortable and functional at the same time. She also wants to make sure that people experience the friendly atmosphere of her store. She invites anyone to visit her store and come take a look at the amazing pieces that she has in her collection.
