Pop49 Inc. is redefining experiential marketing by offering custom, high-impact products and displays that are designed to engage, captivate, and leave a lasting impression on consumers. Specialising in creating immersive brand experiences, Pop49 provides businesses with unique marketing solutions that not only showcase products but foster meaningful connections between brands and their audiences. With a focus on creativity, precision, and innovative technology, Pop49 is the go-to agency for businesses looking to stand out in today's competitive market.

At the heart of Pop49's service offering is its ability to craft bespoke marketing products that go beyond the traditional methods of advertising. The company designs and manufactures a diverse range of custom experiential marketing solutions, including interactive displays, point-of-purchase setups, trade show booths, and promotional products. These immersive solutions are engineered to engage consumers, encouraging participation and interaction with the brand in fun, creative ways.

Pop49 takes pride in its ability to merge art with technology, offering a variety of solutions that are as visually striking as they are functional. By leveraging state-of-the-art technologies such as CNC machining, laser cutting, and 3D printing, the company creates precisely crafted, high-quality products that elevate the brand experience. Whether it's a custom-designed game, a dynamic trade show display, or a branded event space, Pop49 ensures that every piece resonates with the target audience and leaves a lasting impact.

"Experiential marketing is all about creating an emotional connection between a brand and its audience," says Ricky Pacheco from Pop49. "We design our solutions with that principle in mind, ensuring that every product we create sparks a reaction. Our team goes beyond simply designing marketing materials; we craft experiences that consumers remember and engage with long after the event is over."

Pop49 is known for its flexible approach to project size and complexity. From small, tailored runs to large-scale national campaigns, the company adapts to the unique needs of each client. Whether for a single event or an ongoing campaign, Pop49 is able to scale its solutions to fit a variety of marketing objectives. This flexibility allows businesses to rely on Pop49 for all their marketing needs, whether they're looking for a one-off display or a full suite of custom products.

"Our clients turn to us because we offer something that other agencies simply don't—bespoke marketing products that are designed with the audience in mind," said Ricky. "We don't just create displays or products; we create moments. Each of our solutions is tailored to tell a story that aligns with the brand's identity, engages customers, and drives deeper connections."

The company's services are designed to be fully integrated, with Pop49 handling everything from initial design and concept to final production and delivery. This end-to-end service ensures a smooth process for clients, allowing them to focus on their core business operations while Pop49 handles the heavy lifting. Pop49's expertise in large-format printing and graphic design also enables them to create visually stunning materials that help brands communicate their messages effectively at any scale.

In addition to their custom manufacturing and design capabilities, Pop49 also offers a wide range of promotional products and experiential marketing items, including pop-up spaces, bicycles, games, signage, event walls, and more. This extensive product lineup ensures that Pop49 can meet the specific needs of any business, whether they're hosting a small retail event or executing a large nationwide campaign.

Pop49's reputation for innovation, creativity, and quality has earned them the trust of major brands across North America and beyond. From Fortune 500 companies to startups, Pop49 works with clients in a variety of industries to create memorable marketing experiences that drive engagement, increase brand awareness, and foster loyalty. As the experiential marketing landscape continues to evolve, Pop49 is committed to staying at the forefront by pushing boundaries and continuously innovating.

With a focus on delivering results, Pop49 continues to redefine what's possible in experiential marketing. Their customised, interactive solutions ensure that brands not only get noticed but also create an emotional connection that drives consumer behaviour.
