

Williams & Javellana Named Best DUI Attorney In Chico, CA By Many Of Their Clients

April 17, 2015

April 17, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

It has been announced that the Williams & Javellana law firm has been named best DUI Attorney in Chico, CA by many of their clients. The incidents of DUI in the Chico area are still very significant, which means the demand for good DUI attorneys remains high. Hence, Williams & Javellana has welcomed their nomination and hope this will tell more people that there is light at the end of the tunnel.

"Having a DUI against you can seem like the end of the world," explains Brandon Williams. "However, although a DUI is a significant offense, particularly if someone actually did it, there are ways to defend yourself and to suffer less severe consequences. We have always been there to represent our clients in these cases and we have been incredibly successful so far. We hope that the nomination for best DUI attorney will tell more people that not all hope is lost."

California has an interlocking option in a few of their counties. This means that, if convicted, offenders can choose between interlocking or license suspension. With an interlock device, people are only able to start their vehicle by breathing into a device first, effectively breathalyzing themselves. They will not be able to drive any other vehicle but their own, as they must use the interlocking device each time they get behind the wheel.

In many cases, the period of interlocking is longer than a period of suspension. As a result, it may not always be the best option, particularly if people rely on driving a company vehicle, for instance. This is why it is so important to find a good DUI attorney in Chico. Not only is a law firm like Williams & Javellana able to represent the accused in court when facing their DUI charge, clients can also be advised as to whether a period of interlocking may be relevant or not. Additionally, the firm works as hard as possible to make either period as short as possible.

Unfortunately, the number of deaths in the state related to drink driving accounted for 28.9% of all fatalities in traffic in 2014. This number represents an increase since the last time the count was made. This demonstrates that there is a real problem in the state. Additionally, it is causing harsher sentences and penalties for those who do get arrested under a DUI. This means there is all the more reason to have a good DUI attorney on one's side.

For further information on the nomination, Williams & Javellana as a law firm, or DUI attorneys in particular, please contact us through this link. Alternatively, people can use the details below. A DUI is a very serious accusation, but it does not mean that a license will be lost forever. Rather, it means that proper legal representation is required. This can be offered through Williams & Javellana, who will be more than happy to provide advice, information and guidance or to represent a person in court.
