Michelle Bitterly Of Awards & Engraving To Be Honored For Contributions To Community

March 15, 2016

March 15, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Michelle Bitterly, owner of Baytown, Texas company Awards & Engraving, is being honored for her contributions to the community. The event will be the annual BAHS, Bay Area Homeless Services Gala. The highlights of this year's gala will include a live and silent auction that hosts homemade pies by Helen Smith, The Texas Pie Lady, a fishing trip to Schlitterbahn, and a variety of Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo ticket packages.

Bitterly is being recognized for her numerous contributions to the local community, along with several others who have contributed to the local area as well. The gala is hosted each year to show tribute to those who go above and beyond in an attempt to help out those in the community.

"I am honored, of course," Bitterly says. "I mean, giving back is something that I feel we should all do." Those interested in learning more about the gala and this year's honorees can see more at The Vindicator.

Those who regularly go out of their way to help others in the local community are typically chosen to be honored at the gala. Bitterly states that Awards & Engraving is always ready to help those in need. The company provides full service for awards, engraving and promotional products that help to promote organizations and companies, and reward high achievers in the most cost effective way. "Our goal is to show companies and organizations how easy it is to award employees or others and show them how appreciated they are," she explains.

A list of those being honored, as well as more information about the "guest of honor" who will be roasted at the gala can be seen at Your Houston News. The event is dedicated to honoring all those in the local area who actively help others to get back on their feet.

Anyone interested in learning more about Bitterly and her contributions to the area, or those who would like to learn more about Awards & Engraving, can do so on the company's official website at Awards & Engraving.

The company states that they are proud of Bitterly's accomplishments and her contributions.
