

San Diego Sugaring Spa Receives 300th Online Review

April 13, 2016

April 13, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Waxing by Celeste, a waxing and sugaring spa in El Cajon, CA, is proud to announce that they have received their 300th online review. These reviews have been posted on four different sites, which are Facebook, the online booking system Genbook, Yelp, and Google. After 300 reviews, the spa currently holds a five star overall rating. Full details about the services offered by the spa are available through their website on <http://waxingbyceleste.com/>.

Celeste Andrade, founder and owner of Waxing by Celeste, says: "Without my amazing clients leaving their reviews online, this could not have been possible. I want to thank everyone who has taken the time to leave a review for our waxing spa."

Waxing by Celeste is best known for its Brazilian waxing and sugaring service. However, at their El Cajon location, they also offer a number of other services. This includes hair removal, and skin care treatments (microdermabrasion, chemical peels, and facials). The spa also offers waxing for men.

The majority of the reviews left relate specifically to the sugaring services, something that most people prefer over traditional waxing treatments. "Our sugaring is becoming very popular for a few reasons," adds Celeste Andrade. "First, we make it ourselves. Two, it is 100% natural and very good for people with sensitive skin."

Lastly, it is less painful than soft or hard wax and my clients love it!"

On the spa's website, a feature has been posted explaining what sugaring actually is. The feature also explains in full detail how the wax is created, and what its specific benefits are. Benefits include the fact that it is much less painful and that it is easy to clean. However, what makes Celeste's wax so popular, as she explained herself, is that the wax is made by her. This enables them to guarantee the quality of the sugar, as well as that the ingredients are 100% natural.

Those who are interested in the services offered by Waxing by Celeste are encouraged to visit their website for further information. They can also book their appointment online through the Genbook booking system.
