May 16, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Los Angeles, CA ? Pearl Distributors, a purveyor of fine pearl jewelry that expanded from Akoya Pearls to include the finest quality AAA Freshwater Pearls, Tahitian Pearls with their stunning array of colors, and the amazing exquisite South Sea Pearls, this week announced that they are proudly gifting a complimentary pair of pearl earrings to any bride ordering pearls in the month of June. Set to be a popular jewelry accompaniment in this year's wedding fashion scene, pearls are a perfect accent for the "modernized romantic look" sweeping wedding magazines worldwide.

"What's so unique and special about pearls is that they are a timeless accessory," said Miriam Reed, Owner of Pearl Distributors. "Pearls transcend the whims of fashion through the decades to denote sophistication, elegance, and unmistakable beauty. We want all June brides to feel their very best, which is why we're gifting a pair of pearl earrings with any wedding-related pearl purchase."

With Wedding Season quickly approaching orders are coming in for bridal pearl necklaces. Pearl Distributors wants brides placing pearl necklace orders to know that a matching pair of pearl earrings will take their look to the next level. This is our gift to our customers who are celebrating this Special Day in their life.

Weddings are one of the most memorable experiences in a person's life. That's why pearl strands are worth the investment," noted Miriam Reed. "We want to be a part of every bride's special day this June. Spread the word on the availability of our pearl earrings giveaway, and ensure this summer's weddings are ones brides will never forget."

Pearl Distributors ships fine pearl jewelry from California to every part of the country and to many countries around the world. Beginning operations in 2004 they continue to provide the finest pearls available in the world at prices 80% below retail price of similar quality items in high end jewelry stores.
