The popular Ionox infuser water bottle has recently been receiving a high-volume of positive customer reviews. Customers are reporting high satisfaction with the bottle's capacity, durability and size?many of the customers use the bottle daily to infuse their water with delicious fruit flavor and vitamins.

?I especially like that they come with the 2 different size infusion cores, you can add ice and still add the fruit and veggies. This has really helped me with my metabolism and digestion so much that I have been able to help others. Great price and great bottles! I will be buying more I'm sure,? reported one customer.

Many customers mentioned the increase in their water intake since purchasing the infuser bottles.

?I'm not going to lie...I don't like water! This water infuser definitely helps me drink the amount of water I need each day,? said one customer. ?This is my first water infusion bottle. I am so in love with this this is going to make me want to drink water more than I ever have. I am not a water drinker I usually prefer to drink something that has flavor in it. This is a great way to have fresh flavors in water for a natural sweet taste,? said another.

The infuser water bottles are BPA-free, and are tested to be FDA safe for use with food and beverages. The bottle comes with two infusion cores, which provides flexibility in infusion recipes. The bottle also comes with a free electronic recipe book for beginner infusers.

Customers recommended the water bottle for diverse uses?from the gym to the office, biking and driving, the water bottle is the perfect size for at-home or on-the-go use. And with many different colors to choose from and an endless combination of fruit to infuse, drinking water is an experience you can customize with Ionox infuser water bottles.
