The company also placed No. 35 in the Los Angeles?Long Beach?Anaheim metro area, No. 72 among Consumer Products & Services companies, and No. 103 in California ? earning national recognition in its first year on the list.

The inc 5000 is regarded as one of the most prestigious rankings of independent and entrepreneurial businesses in the United States. The list recognizes companies that have achieved significant revenue growth while creating jobs and contributing to the broader economy. "Recognition on this list reflects the effort of a team that has served customers well over the past five years,"

"In Furniture Today, senior editor Spencer Musick recently laid out four ways AI is likely to change furniture retail in 2026, and we're building toward exactly that ? but technology only matters if it helps real families. Our growth came from the thousands of households that trusted us to furnish their homes, including our newest neighbors here in Charlotte."

According to Inc., companies on the 2026 inc 5000 list are ranked by percentage revenue growth from 2022 to 2025, and to qualify must have been founded and generating revenue by March 31, 2022, and be U.S.-based, privately held, for-profit, and independent as of December 31, 2025. Inc. reports that honorees this year posted a median three-year revenue growth rate of 130 percent and together added more than 627,208 jobs to the U.S. economy over the past three years.

The retailer offers a wide selection of furniture and mattresses across living room, bedroom, kitchen and dining, and home office categories, and carries brands including Ashley, Tempur-Pedic, Malouf, and Michael Amini.

"We grew as an independent furniture and mattress store during a period of real change in how people shop for their homes," Uncuoglu added. "Pairing an online catalog with physical showrooms and white-glove delivery let us expand while staying close to the communities we serve."
