New stock images of the clear acrylic Cosmetic Organizer and Makeup Storage from the Cosmopolitan Collection have been released; and in response, many amazon shoppers have commented on the cosmetic organizer?s capacity.

Injection molded transparent acrylic with 4 drawers and 16 unique spaces for cosmetic storage, the new High Definition (HD) images show everything. According to reviews on amazon.com, the drawers are each 1 inch deep, making them great for storing eye shadow palettes or makeup brushes; however, the drawers vary in size. 2 drawers are 4 inches wide while the other drawers are 8 inches wide. All 4 transparent acrylic drawers feature large, comfortable handles and are 4 inches long.

The new acrylic makeup organizer pictures from Cosmopolitan Collection show the amount of cosmetics and beauty goods that can be fit into the organizer?s custom designed spaces. While some images show the cosmetic organizer totally empty, only featuring the transparent acrylic material, many stock images show the organizer totally stuffed with jewelry, hair ties, lipstick, lip gloss, makeup brushes, eyeshadow palettes, makeup bags, nail polish, fragrances, foundation, liners, lotions, and more.

The Cosmopolitan Collection?s cosmetic organizer stock photos also reveal that the storage system is capable of organizing more when the separable top section is placed next to the bottom section of the organizer. Available now on amazon.com for a discounted price at $36.99, Amazon shoppers can enjoy secure shopping carts, 1-click ordering, and free shipping on any order over $49.00.
