August 21, 2026 -

Mascolo Overhead Doors & Maintenance LLC, a local voice in the infrastructure services industry, has unveiled its latest venture into epoxy flooring in Brookfield, CT, marking a significant expansion in its service offerings. This new development positions the company as a comprehensive provider of high-quality home and commercial maintenance services in Brookfield, CT and the surrounding areas.

Mascolo Overhead Doors & Maintenance LLC has built a strong reputation over the years for excellence in the installation, repair, and maintenance of overhead doors. Known for its commitment to attentive service and customer satisfaction, the company is now venturing into epoxy flooring – a move fueled by increasing demand for durable and aesthetically pleasing floor solutions in both residential and commercial properties. The addition of epoxy flooring aligns with the company's mission to provide versatile and innovative solutions that meet the changing needs of its clientele.

Epoxy flooring has become an industry standard for those seeking long-lasting, easy-to-maintain, and visually appealing floors. With applications ranging from garages and basements to commercial spaces such as showrooms and warehouses, epoxy flooring offers durability and resistance to wear and tear. Owner and founder, Mike Mascolo, has recognized the growing trend and necessity for epoxy flooring in the local market, especially with the business completing so many garage-oriented projects. By integrating this service into their offerings, Mascolo Overhead Doors & Maintenance LLC aims to enhance the customer experience by providing streamlined access to comprehensive property improvement services. This strategic move highlights the company's dedication to staying at the forefront of industry trends and delivering the highest standards of service.

In a bid to further educate the market on the benefits and versatility of epoxy flooring, Mascolo Overhead Doors & Maintenance LLC has also published an informative blog series on its website. This resource seeks to provide valuable insights into the advantages of epoxy flooring, installation processes, maintenance tips, and the array of customizable options available to customers. The blog serves as an educational tool for property owners, contractors, and anyone interested in understanding the practical applications of this innovative flooring solution.

Mascolo Overhead Doors & Maintenance LLC's decision to introduce this service comes at a time when homeowners and businesses are increasingly focused on achieving both aesthetic and functional excellence in their spaces. Epoxy flooring can not only enhance visual appeal but may also contribute to safety, with slip-resistant options that are ideal for areas prone to spills and frequent traffic. These services align with sustainable practices by minimizing waste through its long lifespan and lack of need for frequent replacement.

Local businesses and residents in Brookfield can now rely on Mascolo Overhead Doors & Maintenance LLC's expertise in both service provision and customer care to deliver epoxy flooring solutions tailored to their unique needs. The introduction of epoxy flooring services is a testament to Mascolo Overhead Doors & Maintenance LLC's commitment to growth and adaptability in an ever-evolving market. As the company continues to expand its range of services, it remains dedicated to maintaining the core values of integrity, quality, and innovation that have been the hallmark of its success.
