August 27, 2026 -

Truly Investor Capital LLC has announced the continued expansion of its team and the launch of a new career resource for professionals in Chandler, Arizona. As a private lender serving real estate investors, the company continues to build its lending operations while creating opportunities for individuals interested in the mortgage and real estate finance industries.

The newly introduced Chandler jobs resource provides job seekers with a centralized location to discover employment opportunities with the company and learn more about its growing team. The Glass Door Truly Investor Capital resource is designed to give prospective applicants clearer visibility into the organization, its culture, and the roles that support its lending platform.

Truly Investor Capital specializes in financing solutions for real estate investors, including DSCR loans, bridge loans, rehab and fix-and-flip financing, and new construction loans. As the company continues to expand its lending platform and operations, it remains focused on building a team capable of supporting borrowers, brokers, real estate professionals, and investment property transactions.

The expansion follows a period of steady growth for the company, which has funded more than 116 loans across multiple states. The addition of new positions reflects an effort to meet increasing demand for streamlined real estate lending services while maintaining the closing speed that direct borrowers and broker partners rely upon.

"The launch of this career resource marks another step in a broader effort to strengthen the team behind the lending platform," said a spokesperson for Truly Investor Cap. "Growth in the private lending space requires professionals who understand the needs of real estate investors, and the goal is to connect with individuals who want to contribute to that work in Chandler."

Professionals searching for mortgage jobs, private lending positions, and real estate finance careers in Chandler can explore the company's available opportunities and learn more about joining the organization. The roles span areas connected to loan processing, borrower support, and broker relations, reflecting the range of services the company provides.

"Building a strong team is central to supporting the borrowers and brokers who depend on timely financing," the spokesperson for Truly Investor Cap added. "This resource creates a clearer path for talented professionals to find their place within a growing organization."

The company's work in real estate finance connects to its broader operations, which include products offered through Truly Mortgage. Together, these services address a variety of investment strategies, from ground-up construction projects to short-term bridge financing and long-term rental property loans based on debt service coverage ratios.

The introduction of the Chandler career resource represents another stage in the company's continued growth and expanding presence within the private lending industry. As operations grow, the company aims to maintain the streamlined process and reliability that have supported investors across the country.
