

Travelpapers.com Announces a New and Different Travel Gateway Resource

May 25, 2016

May 25, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Travelpapers.com recognizes that the best way to create a good first impression is as simple as saying "Hello?" and "Welcome?". For a longer lasting impression one might even give people a gift to show their appreciation.

"Welcoming visitors into the city is the premise that the TP-Handout was established around, as a street level marketing campaign. TP-Handouts contain the same content found on a TP-Profile. The only reason Travelpaper.com calls it a TP-Handout is because, instead of having travelers find us online and printing their TP-Profile themselves we directly place it in their hands." Basically, "If the mountain won't come to us, then we will go to the mountain," says Donald Bailey CEO/President of Travelpapers.com.

On Canada Day July 1st, 2016, Travelpapers.com will be launching its TP-Handout Campaign in the city of Toronto (Region 6). With 50,000 generic TP-Handouts in hand, Travelpapers.com will hit the streets welcoming people to Toronto and handing them a TP-Profile face-to-face. We will also be distributing handouts to travel gateways interested in sharing this informative resource with their visiting guests. Travelers upon receiving a generic TP-Profile can visit Travelpapers.com and their own to fit their preference at no cost.

The expectation for the TP-Handout campaign is for visitors and locals to enjoy receiving this timely TP-Profile content information associated with the city they are visiting and to hold onto it by putting it in their pocket or handbag. With the uniqueness of a TP-Profile visitors may even choose to take it home with them as a souvenir of their trip.

At the beginning of July 2016, Travepapers.com will be heading out onto the streets of Toronto, welcoming visitors and locals with a warm smile and a TP-Profile in hand to share as a gift of gratitude. They also encourage people to like us on Facebook and to follow us on Twitter. This will ensure they remain up to date with any new updates on the TP-Handout Marketing Campaign and on Travepapers.com in general.
