October 05, 2026 -

Truly Investor Capital, a real estate investor lending company serving direct borrowers and broker partners nationwide, has highlighted a current career opportunity featured on Indeed, giving mortgage and real estate finance professionals an additional way to discover employment within the growing private lending organization.

The job listing provides prospective candidates with access to information about the available position while helping professionals learn more about roles within the company. As the lending platform continues to expand, Truly Investor Capital is building the teams needed to support its borrowers, brokers, sales organization, loan servicing operations, post-closing functions, and broader lending platform.

The company specializes in financing solutions for real estate investors, including DSCR loans, bridge loans, rehab and fix-and-flip financing, and new construction loans. To date, the organization has funded more than 116 loans across multiple states. Featuring career opportunities on an established platform expands the company's recruiting visibility and provides qualified candidates with a straightforward way to research the organization and explore the open role.

The listing also creates another online connection between the Truly Investor Capital brand and professionals researching careers in private lending, mortgage lending, and real estate investment finance. Candidates searching for private lending careers, real estate finance roles, or broader lending industry opportunities can explore the current position through the platform.

"Expanding our presence on a widely used employment platform reflects the steady growth of our lending operations," said a spokesperson for Truly Investor Capital. "As the volume of loans we support continues to increase, we need experienced professionals who understand private lending and the needs of real estate investors. Indeed Truly Investor Capital searches give candidates a direct way to find those roles."

The spokesperson added that recruiting through established channels supports the company's long-term objectives. "A well-developed company presence helps professionals recognize the Truly Investor Capital brand and understand the work taking place within our organization. Consistency in how the company is represented, whether to borrowers, brokers, or prospective team members, remains central to how it operates."

Truly Investor Capital provides fast, streamlined real estate lending solutions tailored to different investment strategies. Rehab Loans are designed to finance fix-and-flip projects, offering up to 90 percent of the purchase price and 100 percent of rehab costs with interest-only payments. Construction Loans support ground-up projects, including spec and custom builds, with flexible draw schedules and terms ranging from 12 to 24 months. DSCR Loans are based on rental income rather than personal income and can be used for purchase, refinance, or cash-out, with up to 80 percent loan-to-value and 30-year fixed options. Bridge Loans offer short-term financing with 12-month terms, no prepayment penalties, and interest-only payments.
