October 06, 2026 -

Truly Investor Capital LLC has established a dedicated company page on Indeed, giving job seekers, mortgage professionals, and real estate finance specialists an additional online resource to research the organization and explore employment opportunities tied to its growing private lending platform.

The new company page creates a centralized destination where prospective candidates can review the organization, learn about its culture, and discover current openings. The addition reflects the ongoing expansion of Truly Investor Capital, which is building teams across sales, loan servicing, post-closing, operations, and other functions that support its lending operations.

Truly Investor Capital specializes in financing solutions for real estate investors, including DSCR loans, bridge loans, rehab and fix-and-flip financing, and new construction loans. To date, the company has funded more than 116 loans across multiple states. As transaction volume and staffing needs increase, the organization has prioritized strengthening its digital recruiting footprint on established employment platforms.

"Establishing a presence on Indeed makes it easier for qualified professionals to find and connect with the company as hiring continues across several departments," said a spokesperson for Truly Investor Capital. "The goal is to give candidates a clear, accessible way to understand the organization, the lending work it does, and the roles that help move each deal forward."

The company page allows candidates to follow the organization, review available positions, and research the business before applying. By maintaining a profile on one of the most recognized career platforms, Truly Investor Capital aims to reach mortgage professionals, sales candidates, and operations specialists who are evaluating opportunities within private lending and real estate finance.

The organization reports that demand for investor-focused financing has driven consistent growth, requiring additional personnel across its lending platform. Recent openings have included a Regional Sales Manager position supporting borrowers and broker partners nationwide. The company anticipates listing further roles as staffing needs evolve.

"Recruiting the right people is central to the service standards the organization sets for borrowers and broker partners," said the spokesperson for Truly Investor Capital. "A clear employment presence helps attract professionals who understand real estate finance and want to contribute to a growing lending team."

The company page also provides an authoritative connection between the Truly Investor Capital Brand and professionals researching the organization, its employment presence, and potential career paths. Candidates searching for terms such as Truly Investor Capital jobs, private lending careers, or real estate finance opportunities can locate the organization on the platform. Indeed Truly Investor Capital searches now return a centralized profile that consolidates company information in one location.
