

Cortes Law Firm Hosts Client Appreciation Night at Chickasaw Bricktown Ballpark

August 31, 2026

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK - August 31, 2026 -

Cortes Law Firm recently welcomed clients, referral partners, and friends to a Client and Partner Appreciation Night held during an Oklahoma City Comets baseball game at Chickasaw Bricktown Ballpark. The event brought together members of the firm's community in a private hospitality suite for an evening focused on connection and gratitude.

Guests gathered to enjoy classic ballpark fare, conversation, and views of the game from the suite's balcony. While the Comets played on the field, the gathering centered on stepping away from the conference room to strengthen the personal relationships that support the firm's estate planning and business law practice.

The evening also coincided with the Comets' annual "Pack the Park Pink" promotion in support of the fight against breast cancer, allowing attendees to take part in a community cause alongside the celebration.

Estate planning and business law are fields built on trust, clear communication, and ongoing collaboration.

For the team at Cortes Law Firm, gatherings such as this provide an opportunity to catch up with clients and professional colleagues in a relaxed, family-friendly setting. From dinner conversations to introducing younger guests to the experience of a live baseball game, the night reflected the community focus at the center of the firm's mission.

"Our practice is grounded in long-term relationships, and an evening like this reminds everyone why that matters," said Stephen Cortes, founder and attorney at Cortes Law Firm. "Estate planning is personal work, and being able to connect with the people who trust us outside of a formal setting means a great deal to the entire team."

The Cortes Law Firm Client Appreciation event drew clients and referral partners from across the Oklahoma City area, underscoring the role that professional relationships and community connections play in the firm's continued growth.

"We are grateful for the confidence our clients and referral network place in us every day," Cortes added. "Bringing everyone together at the ballpark was a way to say thank you and to celebrate the partnerships that carry our work forward."

The firm expressed appreciation to all who attended and noted plans to continue hosting opportunities for clients, colleagues, and community members to connect throughout the year.
