

The Paint Bucket Continues Serving Conifer With Local Paint Expertise

September 01, 2026

CONIFER, CO - September 01, 2026 -

Homeowners and contractors in the foothills continue to have access to a local source for paint, stains, tools, and color services through The Paint Bucket's Conifer location. Located at 25797 Conifer Rd., C-100B, the store provides Benjamin Moore products and related painting supplies while offering custom color matching, in-store consultations, and estimates for qualifying materials.

The Paint Bucket has provided painting and staining products for more than 50 years, according to the company. Its website describes the business as an authorized dealer for Benjamin Moore paints and Proluxe wood stains, with products available for both homeowners and professional contractors. The company operates locations in Conifer, Eagle, and Eagle-Vail, serving communities across Colorado's foothills and central mountain areas.

The Conifer location gives customers a local option when looking for Benjamin Moore in Conifer, CO, along with the supplies needed to prepare for painting and staining projects. The store carries paint products, application tools, interior and exterior stains, specialty finishes, and other related materials. The Paint Bucket also provides custom paint and stain matching for customers who need to coordinate a new color with an existing surface or sample.

Color selection is another part of the business's in-store service. The Paint Bucket offers color consultations at its locations, giving homeowners and contractors an opportunity to discuss color options and product choices with staff before purchasing. The company also provides on-site consultations as part of its available services.

Free estimates are available for certain project materials. The Paint Bucket states that estimates are offered for paint supplies, tools and applicators, and stains. Customers can contact the Conifer location to determine which materials qualify and to discuss the scope of a particular project before purchasing supplies.

The store also serves contractors and advertises special contractor rates. This reflects the business's focus on serving both residential customers handling individual projects and professionals who regularly purchase painting and staining materials. The company's product selection includes Benjamin Moore paint colors as well as Arborcoat stain products, including transparent, semi-transparent, solid, and semi-solid stains.

The Paint Bucket's Conifer location is staffed to assist customers with product and color questions. The business's website identifies the store at 25797 Conifer Rd., C-100B, Conifer, CO 80433, with the location available for customers in Conifer and nearby communities. The store can be contacted at 303-816-4411.

For homeowners and contractors researching Benjamin Moore in Conifer, CO, the local store provides access to Benjamin Moore products alongside paint matching, stains, finishes, tools, and applicators. Its services are structured around helping customers identify supplies for painting and staining work, whether the project involves a residential update, remodeling, property preparation, or other improvements.

The company's more than 50 years of stated service history remains a central part of its identity as a local paint supplier. While the company does not specify on its website an exact founding date or clarify how the 50-year history corresponds to its current ownership or individual store locations, The Paint Bucket continues to operate multiple Colorado locations and serve homeowners and contractors with paint and related products.

The Paint Bucket is a locally owned paint and flooring business serving Conifer, Evergreen, Eagle-Vail, Eagle, and surrounding Colorado communities. The company offers Benjamin Moore paints, Proluxe wood stains, paint sales, custom paint and stain matching, tools and applicators, specialty finishes, color consultations, and other project supplies.
