Representatives from Ionox say they are thrilled to announce that they've gotten feedback from a loyal customer who says they have purchased six of their Ionox water bottles, and intend to buy more. The verified purchase reviewer posted the comment less than a month ago, stating that her friends at work also use the bottles.

"We're glad our loyal customers love our product so much that they're not only willing to recommend them to a friend, but actually purchase them as gifts! We hope that our infuser water bottles have helped people on their journey towards better health through better (and tastier!) hydration," said an Ionox spokesperson.

The review also mentions the value of the bottles, stating, "great price and great bottles!" The bottles are on sale now for just $12.95. Customers can choose between five vibrant colors, including pink, turquoise, purple, green, and the newest color addition to their water bottle line—blue.

The complete review states, "These infusion bottles are great! I have bought at least 6 already at different times. My friends at work love them and use them. I especially like that they come with the 2 different size infusion cores, you can add ice and still add the fruit and veggies. This has really helped me with my metabolism and digestion so much that I have been able to help others. Great price and great bottles! I will be buying more I'm sure.?

The infusion water bottles are made from a BPA-free material that is FDA-safe for use with food and beverages. One infusion stem full of fruit can last for two to three batches of infused water, making the bottles a convenient choice for someone who doesn't have access to fruit or a kitchen throughout the afternoon.
