Redeemer Services, Inc., occupying an office space in the Century Office Park office building in Woodbury Minnesota, offers premier nursing home relations as well as showcasing their newly designed website.

Redeemer Services, Inc. provides nursing home relocation services to individuals in nursing homes who wish to have independence by moving out of nursing facilities and into a community of their choice. Relocation choices include independent living with or without services, subsidized housing, group home settings as well as customized plans.

"We think of Redeemer Services as a gateway to nursing home relocation. Our staff is devoted, compassionate, and we continually strive to serve our clients with caring hearts and caring hands. We take pride in making a difference in the lives of our clients," says Grace Muenyi of Redeemer Services, Inc.

Redeemer Services is devoted to providing the best nursing home relocation services to their clients. The staff at Redeemer Services work towards individualized relocation plans designed to meet the needs of each client and promote a successful nursing home relocation. They value their clients' choices of living in the community and getting the services that they need to maintain safety and good health.

Redeemer Services finalizes relocation sites and assists in completing rental application forms, as well as working with families and doctors to make transitions as smooth as possible including maintaining the client's health and safety in their new environment.

"We have enormous amounts of resources to serve individuals with poor rental history, felony, low income, and disabilities. Our database includes, but is not limited to resources to access damage deposits, household items, furniture, and transportation to meet the needs of our clients," says Muenyi.

Redeemer Services continually expands their staff, allowing them to manage their current case load as well as accepting many new clients. Redeemer Services, Inc. is paid through medical assistance and can also be privately paid.

Redeemer Services professional staff has extensive experience in both mental health and social services. In addition, their staff is fluent in several languages including Hmong, Somali, Arabic and English. This diverse staff allows Redeemer to meet the cultural needs of a diverse community.

"Our staff of caring and compassionate professionals puts 100% of their attention to the details so as to allow us to identify and respond to the spoken and unspoken needs of those we serve," says Muenyi.

Additionally, their database includes but is not limited to resources to access damage deposits, household items, furniture, and transportation to meet the needs of our clients. Redeemer Service's staff have medical service backgrounds and have extensive experience in both mental health and social services.

Redeemer Services is a state certified provider of nursing home relocation Services in the seven metro counties: Ramsey, Washington, Dakota, Anoka, Hennepin, Carver and Scott Counties.
