Ionox is selling their Ionox car tire pressure gauges on Amazon at a discount of up to 35% off the original price. With MSRP around $24.95 for the gauges, the discount on the company's Amazon store front places the gauges at $8.95 and $9.95 for the silver and black tire pressure gauges, respectively.

This discount further improves the value of this high-quality gauge, which comes highly rated on Amazon. The gauge often receives 5-star reviews from customers who are impressed with the products user-friendly interface, comfort and durability. Customers also express surprise at the gauge's other advanced features, which include a backlit display, LED-lit nozzle, and ability to measure tire pressure in four different scales.

The ergonomically designed casing of the tire pressure gauge is made from die-cast metal, and comes in both black and silver. The casing also features a rubberized grip material, which makes the product less likely to slip from the users hand under wet road conditions.

Maintaining proper tire pressure can improve safety, prolong the life of a vehicle, and increase fuel efficiency. Many tire manufacturers recommend that tire pressure measurements be taken at least once a month. Few people know that the ideal frequency is weekly, or every time a driver fills their fuel tank. This ensures optimal tire pressure is maintained at all times, so drivers can reap the aforementioned benefits.

The Ionox tire pressure gauge has been on the market less than a year, and is already rated at 4.6 stars at press time. Some customers even created videos on how to use the tire pressure gauge, and discussed the high quality of the product.

The digital gauge makes tire maintenance easier, for casual drivers as well as professional vehicle operators, including truckers and machinery operators. The versatile gauge can measure from .5PSI to 150PSI, making it a versatile tool for a wide variety of vehicles.

The tire gauge is available on Amazon with free shipping on orders over $49. To learn more about the 35% discount, and to purchase, visit <http://www.amazon.com/car-tire-pressure-gauge/dp/b015ga9t3c/>
