

A&M Roofing Highlights Sustained Five-Star Reputation as Northern Virginia Roofing Company

September 18, 2026

SPRINGFIELD, VA - September 18, 2026 -

A&M Roofing, a locally owned and operated roofing company serving homeowners throughout Northern Virginia for nearly two decades, has reached a milestone in customer satisfaction, maintaining a consistent record of five-star reviews and an A+ rating with the Better Business Bureau. The recognition reflects the company's long-standing focus on workmanship and service across the region.

The firm has built its reputation over almost twenty years of residential work, earning accreditation from leading shingle manufacturers and membership in the Virginia Association of Roofing Professionals and the Northern Virginia Chamber of Commerce. Numerous five-star reviews from area homeowners can be viewed through the company's public Google listing, where customers have documented their experiences with completed projects.

As a full-service roofing company, A&M Roofing in Springfield, VA provides roof repairs, roof replacements, and roof inspections, working with materials that include asphalt shingles, synthetic slate, flat roofing systems, and metal roofing. The company also offers skylight installation as a Velux Certified Installer, along with window and door replacement, siding installation, and seamless gutter systems.

Mark Collins, a spokesperson for A&M Roofing, attributed the company's standing to its approach over time. "The reviews reflect nearly two decades of consistent work in the community," Collins said. "A reputation of this kind is not built through any single project but through steady attention to quality across thousands of homes in the region."

The company's siding and gutter services further support its role among roofers in Northern Virginia homeowners rely on for exterior improvements. A&M Roofing serves as a Mastic Preferred Siding Contractor and installs both 5-inch and 6-inch aluminum seamless gutter systems, custom fabricating seamless gutters on-site and offering Leaf Relief gutter guards to reduce clogging.

Collins noted that the range of services allows the company to address multiple aspects of a home's exterior. "Homeowners often begin with a roof inspection and find that related systems, such as gutters or siding, benefit from attention at the same time," he said. "Being able to handle those needs under one roof has contributed to the feedback received over the years."

The company's window and door work focuses on energy efficiency, drawing on ProVia and Simonton products. Its siding offerings include Mastic siding from Ply Gem and James Hardie fiber-cement siding, a non-combustible and weather-resistant material used in residential construction throughout the area.

A&M Roofing has emphasized fast and reliable service, fair pricing, and standards of integrity as central to its operations. The sustained volume of positive customer feedback, the company reports, has come from residential clients across communities in the region who have engaged the firm for both routine maintenance and larger replacement projects.
