Winkler Real Estate Group Publishes Neighborhood Guides for East Bay Communities With Homes for Sale

November 04, 2026

Albany, California - November 04, 2026 -
Winkler Real Estate Group, a boutique brokerage serving communities throughout the East Bay since 2001, has published a series of neighborhood guides covering the cities where the firm helps clients buy and sell homes for sale, condos and single-family homes. The guides describe local housing, parks, dining and community life across nine East Bay cities.

The guides cover Albany, Berkeley (including the Elmwood, North Berkeley and the Berkeley Hills), Oakland (Lake Merritt, Jack London Square and the Oakland hills), El Cerrito, Kensington, Emeryville, Richmond, Piedmont and Walnut Creek. Winkler Real Estate Group helps buyers and sellers of homes in Oakland, Berkeley, Albany, El Cerrito and across the East Bay. Each Winkler Real Estate Group neighborhood guide outlines the character of a community, from the range of local housing to parks, restaurants and daily life.

The guides reflect a market with varied housing stock. In Oakland, for example, homes range from lofts and bungalows to historic Victorians, a diversity that the firm says shapes how buyers and sellers approach each neighborhood. The resources are intended to orient newcomers and longtime residents alike to the distinct qualities of each city.

"The idea behind these guides is simple," said Daniel Winkler of Winkler Real Estate Group. "People are not just choosing a house. They are choosing a block, a school walk, a coffee shop and a park. We wanted to put that context in one place so buyers and sellers can understand what makes each East Bay community different."

Nearly all of the firm's agents were born and raised in the East Bay neighborhoods they serve, a background the brokerage says informs the detail found in each guide. That local knowledge extends across residential work that includes homes for sale and homes listed for lease.

The firm also works with developers. For developer clients, Winkler Real Estate Group has sold over 4,000 condominiums and single-family homes and consults on model homes and pre-sale requirements. The brokerage conducts this work under the name Daniel Winkler and Associates.

"Our roots in these neighborhoods are what set the tone for how we work," said Shannon Buckley, a representative of Winkler Real Estate Group. "The guides are an extension of the conversations we have every day with people deciding where to live in the East Bay."

The neighborhood guides are available through the brokerage. Winkler Real Estate Group, 1215 Solano Avenue, Albany, CA 94706, (510) 528-2200, winklerrealestategroup.com.
