June 15, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Prosperous I.M. Inc, a Pensacola, FL company, is proud to announce that they now offer 'done for you' services. In the past, the SEO Pensacola company focused on hosting boot camps on SEO (search engine optimization) and SEM (search engine marketing). While they continue to do this, they are now also happy to provide SEO and SEM services for their clients.

Eddie Hill from Prosperous I.M. Inc says: "Over the past few years, we have noticed that, while our boot camps continue to be very popular, many of our clients simply don't have the time and energy to actually implement everything that they learn there. This is understandable, since they are busy enough operating within their own niche. Hence, we now offer a full done for you service, both to those who have attended a boot camp and those who haven't."

For those who are interested in the done for you services, the Pensacola, FL online marketing agency first offers an initial SEO discussion. This will enable them to find out what their clients need, and how this can best be achieved. They then perform keyword research and full analytics, before moving on to the actual work. This includes on site optimization and back linking. They then 'rinse and repeat', meaning they ensure the efforts continue to be effective.

Those who have used the services offered by Prosperous I.M. Inc have been very happy with the results of their work. "We are absolutely ecstatic with the service we received from Prosperous IM Inc," says Holly T. on the company's website. "Eddie Hill, Oren Powell, and the rest of their team are phenomenal at helping us create marketing tools and boosting our reach to customers. We strongly recommend their services to anyone with a business."

This online advertising agency in Pensacola, FL, encourages everyone to contact them as soon as possible, either for boot camp services or for the full done for you service. The company is fully Google certified and is a BBB accredited business, as well as offering a full satisfaction guarantee. As such, their services are guaranteed to be effective.
