

Pumpkin Jack's Ranch Highlights Halloween and Fall Activities Underway in Paso Robles

October 15, 2026

PASO ROBLES, CA - October 15, 2026 -

Pumpkin Jack's Ranch is welcoming families and groups to a full slate of seasonal farm entertainment this October at its grounds located at 5375 Monterey Road, Paso Robles, CA 93446, within San Luis Obispo County. The agritainment destination is presenting pumpkin-season traditions alongside interactive outdoor attractions as the fall season reaches its peak across California's Central Coast.

"October is the heart of the season here, and the ranch is designed so that every member of a family finds something to enjoy," said a spokesperson for Pumpkin Jack's Ranch. "From the pumpkin patch to the corn maze and the apple cannons, the goal is to give Central Coast families a place to spend an afternoon outdoors together during the fall."

Among the Halloween activities in Paso Robles now available at the ranch, visitors can walk the pumpkin patch and select pumpkins straight from the vine, choosing from classic carving varieties, oversized giant pumpkins, and ornamental gourds. The property also features a haunted house, a corn maze, a petting zoo with resident farm animals, giant bounce houses, and an apple cannon range where guests aim real apples at rustic farm targets.

The ranch presents these attractions as distinct ways for families and groups to spend an October outing together. Hay rides carry visitors across the seasonal harvest fields, while outdoor lawn games and a custom hay fort give children room to climb and explore. The combination of open farmland, autumn colors, and seasonal photo settings contributes to an atmosphere designed for shared experiences among family and friends.

The ranch has shared seasonal visuals through its Instagram presence, including a recent Reel that reflects the current look and feel of an October visit. The social content offers prospective guests a preview of the farm setting, the pumpkin fields, and the outdoor activities available during the season.

"The response from the community has shown how much families value a local fall destination," the spokesperson added. "Visitors are encouraged to check current seasonal details before planning a trip, since the farm experience changes throughout the harvest months."

For those searching for October family activities in Paso Robles, the ranch offers a setting where pumpkin picking and farm play exist side by side. The seasonal harvest fields and the Monterey Road corn maze give visitors opportunities to navigate, discover, and build autumn traditions in an outdoor environment.

The ranch presents itself as a regional option for Paso Robles and San Luis Obispo County residents, Central Coast visitors, weekend travelers, and community groups looking to take part in pumpkin-season traditions and outdoor farm entertainment this October.

Pumpkin Jack's Ranch is an agritainment farm in Paso Robles, California, offering family-friendly attractions that include a pumpkin patch, haunted house, petting zoo, corn maze, bounce houses, apple cannon range, hay rides, outdoor lawn games, a hay fort, and seasonal harvest fields. The ranch provides an outdoor setting where families and groups can experience fall traditions throughout the autumn season.

Current seasonal information is available at <https://pumpkinjacksranch.com/>, and additional seasonal visuals and updates are shared through the ranch's Instagram.

###

For more information about Pumpkin Jack's Ranch, contact the company here: Pumpkin Jack's Ranch
Pumpkin Jack's Ranch 805-674-1850 info@pumpkinjacksranch.com
Pumpkin Jack's Ranch 5375 Monterey Road Paso Robles CA 93446

Pumpkin Jack's Ranch

Pumpkin Jack's Ranch, located in Paso Robles, CA, is a premier local farm destination offering fun, family-friendly outdoor attractions.

Website: <https://pumpkinjacksranch.com/>

Email: info@pumpkinjacksranch.com

Phone: 805-674-1850

