

CMS Social Announces New White Label Social Media Reseller Program

May 04, 2015

May 04, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

CMS Social, a company based in Miami, FL, has introduced a new white label social media reseller program. This program has been proven to be highly successful for marketing and advertising agencies. CMS Social hopes to attract a great deal of new resellers, thereby also building their own brand.

"We have delivered a new social media reseller program that ticks all the boxes," says Matt Gronbeck of CMS Social. "It is easy to use and it offers businesses all the benefits they are looking for, which means it is easy to promote as well."

The program also comes with a special offer. If a new customer is able to sell ten packages at one of the $129 or greater pricing plans, they will receive the daily content plus Twitter manager package for free. This package is worth $209, which makes it a very interesting offer.

CMS Social has gone out of their way to provide full clarity about the social media reseller program. Their Plans & Pricing section, for instance, explains clearly what plans are available and what they include. At present, they have Daily Content package at $129 per month, the Plus Twitter Manager at $209 per month, the Facebook Plus Manager at $209 per month and the Plus Twitter & Facebook Manager at $279 per month. Each of these packages includes different aspects and different guarantees. This means that there is a plan out there for every organization, making it a very easy program to sell.

"It is a known fact that social media is hugely important in terms of building online authority and brand recognition," says Matt Gronbeck. "What our packages do is take the hard work of being social out of a company's hands. The results of this can be tremendous and it is very easy to show that there will be a significant return on investment. Plus, with our special offer for our resellers, they will feel more motivated to sell more and make a real difference."

CMS Social is a very well known and respected company with an expertise in the world of online marketing and authority building. By offering people the opportunity to become resellers, they are able to build on a proven strategy, which means it becomes very easy for them to start their own business as well. Some have compared the system to being a franchise, although this one is far more affordable. Additionally, the difference is that clients do not realize that they are actually working with CMS Social, meaning the credit actually goes to the reseller.
