June 23, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

With tax time only just around the corner, L Jeffery Accountants, a business in Hamilton Hill, Western Australia, has announced that their experts are ready to offer their services to help clients on their income tax returns. Having developed the reputation of being the best accountant Fremantle has to offer, the firm is ready to take on new clients.

Lynn Jeffery, founder and owner of L Jeffery Accountants, says: "All members of our team are certified practicing accounts. Anyone who doesn't know where to start with their tax return should give us a call straightaway. We can help with tax returns, business taxes, audits, and any other financial returns. From our Hamilton and Port Kennedy offices, we serve a large geographical area, including Fremantle, and welcome any new clients through our doors."

The firm prides itself on their friendly attitude. Originally established in 1965 in Fremantle, they relocated to Hamilton Hill 20 years ago. They opened their Port Kennedy office in 1984 and have grown from strength to strength since then. It is for good reason, therefore, that they are the most trusted tax returns Fremantle firm.

The firm is open five days a week and has expertise in all areas of taxation, as well as business management, MYOB, and GST. They want to ensure that their clients have a complete understanding of the taxation position that is open to them, and which laws and requirements apply to them. Additionally, they aim to improve every individual's personal situation so they pay as little tax as possible.

The company is rated #1 for quality service, particularly for their income tax returns Fremantle services. They have received numerous positive reviews from their various clients. "We have been dealing with Emma for many years now for both our companies," says Sharlene G. on the firm's Facebook page. "The service is amazing. Not only is she extremely professional but also has the personal touch and friendliness to make you always feel like a respected client. Her knowledge is outstanding. I am so happy that I refer all of my clients her way if they are looking for a great accountant."
