

Blue Sky Bistro Highlights Family Dining Options with Kids Menu in Morro Bay

November 03, 2026

MORRO BAY, CA - November 03, 2026 -

Choosing a restaurant that suits both adults and children can present a practical challenge, particularly for families searching for a single destination where everyone finds something appealing. Blue Sky Bistro, a waterfront seafood restaurant situated at Marina Square in Morro Bay, addresses that challenge with a dedicated kids menu that sits alongside a broader selection designed for diners of all ages.

The children's menu features familiar dishes that give parents straightforward options when planning a meal with younger guests. Among the choices are Homemade Mac & Cheese, Chicken Quesadilla, and Grilled Cheese, each listed on the restaurant's official menu. These selections are intended to appeal to children while adults at the same table explore the full range of offerings.

That broader selection includes fresh seafood, sandwiches, burgers, and pasta, allowing families to order different meals without visiting separate establishments. A parent might select a catch of the day while a child enjoys a familiar favorite, with both served in the same casual setting. The arrangement reflects the restaurant's position as a place where varied tastes can be accommodated during a single visit.

The restaurant's location at Marina Square, overlooking the bay, lends itself to a relaxed atmosphere suited to a meal with children or grandchildren during a Morro Bay visit. The casual environment and waterfront views provide a backdrop for family outings along the Central Coast, whether for a weekday meal or a weekend gathering with visiting relatives.

Roger Sharp, owner of Blue Sky Bistro, noted the thinking behind maintaining options for younger diners. "Families often tell us they want one place where the adults and the kids can each order something they actually want to eat," Sharp said. "Having familiar dishes on the kids menu, alongside our seafood and other mainstays, means a group can sit down together and everyone has a choice that works for them."

Sharp added that the waterfront setting plays a role in how families experience a visit. "The casual atmosphere at Marina Square tends to put people at ease, which matters when children or grandchildren are part of the group," he said. "Reviewing the menu ahead of time can help families decide what appeals to each person before they arrive."

As the owner Roger Sharp mentioned in this post, reviewing the menu in advance helps families plan a meal that suits every member of the group. The full list of children's selections and the broader menu are available on the official menu, which outlines the dishes available across breakfast, lunch, and dinner.
