Dog Treats Company Launches Updated Facebook Page

June 24, 2016

Being aware of the importance of social media for online marketing, a dog treats company in Farmington, UT, has announced that they have updated the look of their Facebook page. Furthermore, they have added more content. They have also used the Facebook page to highlight their flagship product at https://www.amazon.com/dp/B019LP2UVG, which is their Turkey Stix.

Renee Coulter from Wonderful Wags says: "We have been engaged in online marketing for some time now, and had a Facebook page to introduce us to our customers, as well as our own website. Now that our product is really taking off, we felt that we wanted to build a greater community between ourselves and our customers, so we enhanced our Facebook page. We encourage everyone to come and take a look, ask us questions, join in conversations, or let us know what they think of our products."

The company has now observed that their Facebook page has increased in popularity as a result of the changes, attracting nearly 700 likes. At present, the social media page holds information about the Turkey Stix as well as special offers on their product. Furthermore, the company has also shared a number of funny videos about dogs, something that is proving to be quite popular. Dog videos are always enjoyed within the online community.

Wonderful Wags has also noticed that their website has been recommended on Facebook more than 75 times. People who have tried any of their products, which are the Turkey Stix, Beef Stix, Salmon Snax, and No Bark Collar. All their products have proven to be popular through their Amazon store, with people citing that their dogs absolutely love the treats and that the treats are so good for the overall health of their dogs, being all natural and made in the USA.

Renee Coulter adds: "We're really happy to see that people enjoy our product. Our goal is to make sure all dogs can live a happy, healthy life, in return for their fantastic companionship and undying loyalty to their humans. We welcome everybody to share their doggy stories with us on Facebook."
