

Doll Collectors Of North Park Sponsors Doll Show In San Diego

August 24, 2016

August 24, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Nonprofit club Doll Collectors of North Park (DCNP) has announced that they are sponsoring the Doll Show and Sale on October 22, 2016 that will be held in San Diego, CA. The event will take place at Our Savior's Lutheran Church and will have a Halloween theme. More than 30 exhibitors are expected to display modern, BJD's, antique, and vintage toys. People can join the event on Facebook, <https://www.facebook.com/events/494612067403395/>.

Stephanie Beck from Doll Collectors of North Park says: "Mark your calendars for a "Spook-tacular" event. We offer free parking. Food and drinks are available in the cafe. Admission is just $5.00 and we encourage people to share the event to get a discount. Kids 13 and under get free admission if accompanied by an adult. Bring your favorite dolls, place them in the scene, snap off a pic to share with your favorite online doll forum. The first 50 attendees will receive the latest issue of Doll Magazine."

The club has existed for more than 70 years and in that time, they have grown to the largest of the 28 doll clubs in San Diego. DCNP is also the only club of its kind in San Diego where members do not pay dues. Throughout the years, DCNP has supported the community in various ways. These include making baby blankets for unwed teen mothers, donating to women's shelters, and pet rescue organizations. Furthermore, DCNP members cooperated with the Girl Scouts of America in helping the local troops to earn Doll Making Badges. More details about the DCNP can be obtained at <http://perkydecor.wix.com/dcnp>.

The doll show that is sponsored by the DCNP is listed on Doll Show USA. More information about this can be seen at <http://dollshowusa.com/>. Meanwhile, the club is currently accepting members and looks forward to welcoming more people with a passion for dolls, crafting, and more to their ranks. They also encourage anyone considering to become a member to attend the upcoming event, as it will give them the opportunity to meet other members, and also other organizations that the club is linked to through their community work.
