November 03, 2026

ATLANTA, GA - November 03, 2026 -
Ross Moore Law will host its 2nd Annual Turkey Giveaway on Tuesday, November 17, 2026, continuing the personal injury law firm's commitment to supporting local families and strengthening communities throughout the Atlanta area. The community initiative will provide free Thanksgiving turkeys and Ross Moore Law promotional items to residents as families prepare for the upcoming holiday.

The annual giveaway will take place at Fountain of Hope, located at 829 Hollywood Road in Atlanta, beginning at 10 a.m. Community members are invited to attend and receive a turkey while connecting with the Ross Moore Law team. By bringing this initiative back for a second year, the firm aims to continue making a positive difference for Atlanta residents during a season centered on gratitude, family, and giving back.

Thanksgiving can bring additional financial pressures for households already managing everyday expenses. The cost of preparing a holiday meal can create another challenge for families facing financial uncertainty. Through its annual turkey giveaway, Ross Moore Law seeks to offer practical support to local residents while reinforcing the importance of community involvement and outreach. The event reflects the firm's belief that supporting the communities it serves extends beyond providing legal representation.

Ross Moore Law serves individuals throughout Georgia and Tennessee, representing accident victims in personal injury matters involving car accidents, truck accidents, motorcycle accidents, pedestrian accidents, rideshare accidents, and wrongful death claims. Founded by Attorney Ross Moore, the firm advocates for individuals and families dealing with the physical, emotional, and financial consequences of injuries caused by negligence. Its attorneys work to hold negligent parties and insurance companies accountable while pursuing compensation for medical expenses, lost wages, pain and suffering, and other damages.

Community initiatives like the annual Thanksgiving turkey giveaway reflect the firm's broader commitment to the people and families who make up the communities it serves. Personal injury accidents can place unexpected financial and emotional burdens on households, often affecting a family's ability to manage routine expenses and plan for important occasions. By organizing opportunities to give back, Ross Moore Law demonstrates its dedication to helping Atlanta residents beyond the courtroom.

The second annual event also provides an opportunity for local residents to connect with the firm in a welcoming community setting. In addition to receiving Thanksgiving turkeys, attendees will have the opportunity to pick up Ross Moore Law swag. The firm encourages community members to stop by Fountain of Hope and take part in the November 17 giveaway.

Ross Moore Law continues to represent injured individuals throughout the Atlanta metropolitan area and across Georgia and Tennessee. The firm's Atlanta personal injury lawyers handle complex accident claims, investigate the circumstances surrounding injuries, gather supporting evidence, and negotiate with insurance companies on behalf of clients. Individuals injured because of another party's negligence can contact the firm to discuss their legal options and request a free case evaluation.
