June 27, 2016 -

Sanford, FL - Caitlin Rain has recently announced the release of the fifth and final book in the romance novels for Kindle.These books were called Five Week Fiance and the finale is entitled ?Decades and Days.? The book is made available for readers on Amazon for the Kindle platform and other similar devices.

The romance novels for Kindle feature a story about Eli Plainview and Angela Fitzgerald who he has co-opted in a public relations plan to assist his struggling company. The main competition is his former friend, Douglas Robinson who owns a rival company that has started to cripple Eli?s business. Eli recruits Simon ?The Fix? Smith to come up with a scheme to increase back his competitive advantage and Angela gets thrown into the mix. However, things get heated once they become involved and real emotions start to grow.

The final book relates how Eli finally decided to destroy his onetime friend, Douglas Robinson. However he found it harder to do each step of the way. The relationship between Angela and Eli became thrown into focus as Angela spends their last days together in Eli?s apartment. Only by becoming more in love with each other do the two make it through the last days of their arrangement.

?I am elated to announce the finale of my latest romance series. ?Decades and Days? is an exciting end to the Five Week Fiance romance novels for Kindle. Readers will become engrossed to find out what finally happens between Eli and Angela and the company they worked together to save,? commented Caitlin Rain.

One excited reader announced, ?I?m glad that I finally got to see the end of these novels. Caitlin had me hooked from the first book and I just had to see the ending!?

Another customer on Amazon simply stated ?Loved it? as their assessment of the fifth and final book in the romance novels for Kindle.

Caitlin Rain is a best-selling author on Amazon and uses her gift for writing to capture stories about longing, desire and endearing love. This latest series of books has been seen by many readers on Amazon as great in character development and steamy hot in emotions.
